

LABOR DAY FIRST ON THE PROGRAM

Many Stirring Events Scheduled to Take Place During the Present Week.

GRAND NAVAL REVIEW

BRYAN TO MAKE SEVERAL AD-DRESSES.

Today, Labor Day, what probably will be the greatest assemblage of war vessels in the history of the western hemisphere will be reviewed by President Roosevelt in the waters of Long Island sound, off Oyster Bay. In the fleet will be the newest and best of the vessels of the American navy, including all that is most efficient in the various classes of battleships, cruisers, torpedo boats and torpedo boat destroyers and submarines.

10:45 a. m.—Mayflower with President leaves anchorage.
11:00 a. m.—Mayflower reaches head of column.
12:00 noon—Mayflower anchors.
12:45 p. m.—Commander-in-chief visits Mayflower.
1:00 p. m. to 2:45 p. m.—Reception on board the Mayflower.
2:30 p. m.—President visits Maine, Alabama, West Virginia in succession, and perhaps other ships.
3:00 p. m.—Ships illuminate.
When the review is over the ships will proceed to different stations, according to previous assignment. At the close of the review there will be a reception on the Mayflower, at which the president will greet the commanders of the ships.

Bryan's Program.
W. J. Bryan during the week will proceed to his home in Lincoln, Neb. On the way he probably will make an address at Detroit, and in Chicago he will be the guest of the Iroquois club, where he is to make an address.
On Wednesday, at Bath, Secretary Taft will deliver what is expected to be an important speech in the Maine campaign.

On Saturday, at Oyster Bay, President Roosevelt will attend the ceremonies in celebration of the 100th anniversary of Christ church, Oyster Bay, and will deliver an address.

The German-American races for the Roosevelt cup, off Marblehead, Mass., under the joint control of the Kaiserlicher Yacht club of Kiel and the Eastern Yacht club of Boston, will be started off Half Way rock at 11 o'clock a. m., or as soon thereafter as may be possible, on the following dates: Monday, September 3; Wednesday, September 5; Thursday, September 6; Saturday, September 8; Monday, September 10; Tuesday, Sept. 11 (if necessary).

The Amateur Athletic union junior and senior national championship will be under the auspices of the New York A. C. at Travers Island, Pelham Manor, New York, on Saturday, September 8.

One of the most important events in the prize ring in recent months will be decided Monday, when Joe Gans, the negro lightweight, will meet Battling Nelson at Goldfield, Nev. The men are reported to have trained carefully for the contest and a good fight is expected. Gans has been the favorite in the betting, but the followers of Nelson express complete confidence that their man will win.

I don't believe you will do yourself justice if in buying a piano you do not call at the New York & Western Co. before deciding on your new piano, as they have the one price and one profit system. And we know of no better piano, both high grade and medium pianos, than they carry. Ticket on each piano tells the story, price and conditions. Cash reduction, easy payments, etc. Go in; you can wait on yourself in their store. They give estimates on piano repairs without cost to you, and they do tuning. They have such high grade used pianos as Weber, Behr Bros., Steinway & Sons, Henry F. Miller, Chickering, Knabe and others. Their address is:

No. 52 Market St.
Near Postoffice.

MASK BALL THURSDAY.

Salt Palace Will Witness Revelry by Night.

A grand ball and masked carnival will be held at the Salt Palace Thursday night, Sept. 6. At first the purpose of the committee was to have the masking restricted to the dance hall, but it has now decided to have masking general all over the grounds.

This will be the first carnival to be held in this city since the street carnival about four years ago. Arrangements have been made with the Denver & Rio Grande railroad to bring in excursions for the carnival, both from the north and south, and it is expected that there will be a thousand merry-makers come into the city for the occasion. Three hundred dollars will be given in prizes for costumes worn, the principal ones being as follows:

A $50 cash prize for the best sustained character.
A $25 cash prize for the best king.
A $25 cash prize for the following queen:
A $10 cash prize for the best group of five.
A $50 cash prize for the most elaborate costume.

A novel program is being arranged and will be engaged in by well known people of the town, but no one will know who they are, as they will be masked.

OFFER PRIZES FOR ESSAYS

Officers of Merchant Marine League Will Give Away $1,000 to Students.

Prizes aggregating $1,000 are offered by the Merchant Marine League of the United States, at Cleveland, O., for the four best essays on "How to Build Up the Shipping in the Foreign Trade," only students in high schools, technological schools, colleges and universities in the United States being eligible to compete. There will be four prizes, viz: one of $500, one of $300, one of $200 and one of $100. Students desiring to compete for these prizes must register their names, and the institutions of learning which they are attending, with the league, in order to have their essays considered. The names of the judges will be announced soon, at which time the prize money will be on deposit in the Central National bank of Cleveland, subject to the order of the judges who will award the prizes. Essays must not exceed 2,000 words; they must be typed, written on one side of the paper only. The author's name must not be signed to his essay—only his nom de plume—which latter, with his full name and address, must accompany the essay in a separate sealed envelope. No limitation is set upon the method or plan that may be advocated; it may be along the line of protection or free trade. The contests will close about Nov. 15, and the prizes will be awarded about Dec. 15, 1906.

Public documents, speeches made in the senate and house, a bibliography issued by the librarian of congress, the latter cataloguing the publications extant bearing upon this subject, may be obtained through senators and representatives in congress, and the Merchant Marine league will send its documents to all who apply for them.

Harvey D. Gould, president of the National Rivers and Harbors congress, is president of the league. Its treasurer, Colonel J. J. Sullivan, is president of the Central National bank, also president of the Superior Savings & Trust company of Cleveland and president of a national bank at Canton, O. ## WANT SALT LAKE A MEMBER Boston Economic League Writes Concerning Formation of National League.

The Economic club of Boston, in a letter to The Herald, desires to learn if there is a non-partisan society in Salt Lake which gives consideration to social or economic problems. The club named is endeavoring to affiliate such societies into a National Economic league, which is now being organized to promote throughout the country concurrent discussions on the important questions of the day. If no society, willing to affiliate, can be found in Salt Lake the Boston club desires to aid interested citizens willing to form such an organization. The communication is signed by J. W. Beaton, secretary of the club. The object of the National Economic league, as outlined in a pamphlet issued by the Boston club, is to aid the creation and expression of enlightened public opinion by promoting throughout the country non-partisan investigation and discussion of the important social, economic and political problems of the day. The most vital questions will be discussed in all parts of the country, so far as possible, at the same time. Able speakers representing opposing views will be brought in debate before the same audiences, and a systematic effort will be made to diffuse the results of the discussions.
